

APNA's Cultiv-8 Nurse Clinics Program

General practices within the Gold Coast PHN region are eligible to apply

Applications close 16th January 2026, 5pm

8 Week Hybrid-Learning Program

4 February 2026 - 24 March 2026

APNA's Cultiv-8 Nurse Clinics program, delivered in partnership with Gold Coast Primary Health Network (GCPHN), is an 8-week hybrid learning program to support the introduction of the nurse clinic concept enabling nurses to use their full scope of practice.

What you'll learn

The value of nurse clinic models

Building Blocks

Apply APNA's Nurse Clinic Building Blocks to plan a nurse clinic

Identify funding options

Learn to identify funding options to support nurse clinic models of care

What's involved?

Weekly workshops

The 8 week program will include:

- 2 in person workshops
- 6 webinars

Nomination of general practice representatives

Participants must include one nurse, option for one supporting staff member

Completion of evaluation measures

- Pre and Post Program Survey
- Nurse Clinic Implementation Plan
- Accountability Check-in survey (3 months)

Apply today! Scan the QR or visit our website

For support contact Bec Norris

07 5612 5425

rebeccan@gcpnh.com.au

